PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is hard to believe that is almost October! Where has the year gone? Fall is a beautiful time of the year, filled with cooler weather, crisp nights, holidays and activities, and thoughts toward the next year.

The Art League has had a full and rewarding year, which we owe to the hard work of so many members. Now we must begin to think about how to go forward in 2016. We all need to bring some ideas to the next meeting – ideas about any changes we think might make our group more viable and cohesive, as well as give more of our members a chance to participate in all activities, including the meetings. We have so many talented, creative people in our membership and we need them all to be the most

It has been suggested that we again try a different time slot for our meetings, maybe a Thursday from 6 to 7, or something like that. I would like each of you to think about whether there is a specific day or time that would work best for you to attend the meeting. We are wondering if having the meeting time in the evening might bring in new members who might want to become officers, or take other positions that are needed throughout the year.

Also, please consider some workshops that you might be interested in attending. Kaia and Louise are hoping to put some together.

Wonderful news – Peggy and Dave Ottens will be co-chair with Jill for the Spring Show. Thank you Peggy and Dave – we appreciate you

Georgia O'Keeffe and Ansel Adams — two of America's best-known artists — are both revered for their ability to capture, in their own unique ways, the essence of natural beauty. The two met for the first time in 1929 while in Taos, New Mexico, and despite a 15-year age gap and differing personalities, they developed a lifelong friendship through their shared admiration of the natural world. O'Keeffe and Adams corresponded over the years, visited one another, and sometimes traveled together to sites that became subjects of their artwork.
